Global Supply Chain Insights

We integrated global manufacturing data to deliver supply chain transparency so hospitals can prepare for and quickly respond to global disruptions.

- Identify where products are sourced and assess impact of disruptions by geography.
- Evaluate concentration of risk for active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs).
- Find and compare alternative products based on price and supply chain risks.

Savings Highlight

The Contract Fix Difference

Hidden contract errors contributed $8.2M to Q3 savings, representing 26% of the quarter's total — proof that unseen discrepancies still cost health systems millions. Read how QuicksortRx eliminates manual chases by finding, validating, and resolving discrepancies in our latest blog post.

Team Updates

$250M in Health System Savings

Behind this milestone is a committed community of pharmacists, engineers, analysts, and partners all working together to improve pharmacy operations. Congrats to our customers on a huge achievement!
